CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the purchaser; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot in dispute shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneers cannot decide such dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 6*d.*; above five shillings, 1*s.*; above five pounds, 2*s.* 6*d.*; and so on.
- III. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10*s.* in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.
- IV. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which the Auctioneers will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property be not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate re-sale, and the charges incurred will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. F. THOMPSON and SON will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared either by public or private sale without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- V. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed, but the Auctioneers beg to call the attention of parties who may not be able to attend the sale personally, and therefore entrust their commissions to the undersigned, to the somewhat poor condition the majority of the books are in.
- VI. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any imperfection, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All books, magazines, and reviews, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. The sale of any books, prints, or drawings is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VII. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot on any account can be removed during the time of sale.
- VIII. Upon failure of compliance with the aforesaid conditions, the money required and deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen may have their commissions faithfully executed by
